

EAST-WEST CENTER WASHINGTON

Photo by: vichie817 / freepik

CONGRESSIONAL STAFF PROGRAMS

The East-West Center in Washington conducts congressional staff programs that equip congressional staffers with official and expert perspectives on key

US relationships and policy challenges in the dynamic Indo-Pacific region to contribute to their professional development and work in Congress.

Congressional Staff Program on Australia

Congressional Program on US-Japan Relations and the Indo-Pacific

Congressional Staff Program on the Pacific

Congressional Staff Program on Taiwan

Congressional Staff Program on Korea

Congressional Staff Program on Southeast Asia

Congressional Staff Program on the Indo-Pacific

For more information, please contact:
Mr. Ross J. Tokola
TokolaR@EastWestCenter.org

Eligibility Information for Applicants:

Applicants must be current congressional staff, employed by either a member of congress or congressional committee, and can come from either chamber or a congressional commission. Previous Indo-Pacific experience is preferred.

Photo by: vichie817 / freepik

PREVIOUS PROGRAMS

Congressional Staff Program on the Pacific
2022

15
Congressional Staff

CSPP is designed to provide staffers with a more comprehensive understanding of the region and its significance to US Indo-Pacific policy. This program follows the launch of The Pacific Islands Matter for America/ America Matters for the Pacific Islands, sponsored by the US Department of the Interior's Office of Insular Affairs and with support from the Congressional Pacific Islands Caucus.

Congressional Program on US-Japan Relations and the Indo-Pacific
2021-2023

44
Congressional Staff

CPUSJ focuses on crucial, forward-looking issues in US-Japan relations, and is designed to provide Hill staffers with advanced, cutting-edge understanding of the US-Japan relationship and its role in the region. This program is supplemented with Japan Matters for America/America Matters for Japan, and is in partnership with, and sponsored by, Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA.

Congressional Staff Program on Asia
2016-2019

42
Congressional Staff

CSPA provided Capitol Hill staff members with an opportunity to engage US officials and leading experts on a range of contemporary, policy-relevant topics in US-Indo-Pacific relations. This program was supplemented by Asia Matters for America initiative publications, and was in partnership with, and sponsored by, Sasakawa Peace Foundation USA.

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US-Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.