

EAST-WEST CENTER WASHINGTON

Photo by: vichie81 / freepik

PUBLICATIONS

WEBINARS

ASIA MATTERS FOR AMERICA

This initiative maps the trade, investment, employment, business, diplomacy, security, education, tourism, and people-to-people connections between the United States and the Indo-Pacific at the national, state, and local levels. This website, publication, and one-page summaries for states and congressional districts are resources for understanding the robust and dynamic US-Indo-Pacific relationship.

Asia Matters for America
(2022 - 4th edition)

Japan Matters for America
(2023)

APEC Matters for America
(2023)

INDO-PACIFIC FOREIGN POLICY AND DEFENSE SERIES

Enduring and New Frontiers in US-Japan Relation Japan as a Global Military Power: New Capabilities, Alliance Integration, Bilateralism-Plus (2022)

Dr. Christopher Hughes, University of Warwick; Dr. Ellis Krauss, University of California San Diego; Dr. Satu Limaye, East-West Center

ASIA PACIFIC BULLETIN SPECIAL SERIES

Enduring and New Frontiers in US-Japan Relations (2021)

The East-West Center in Washington, in collaboration with the Tokyo Review, explores the possibilities for continuing and creating new pathways of cooperation between the United States and Japan under the Biden and Suga administrations.

The Courteous Power: Japan and Southeast Asia in the Indo-Pacific Era (2022)

Dr. John Ciorciari, Gerald R. Ford School of Public Policy, University of Michigan; Dr. Shino Watanabe, Sophia University in Tokyo and Visiting Scholar (Fulbright Scholar), George Washington University; Dr. Nobuhiro Aizawa, Kyushu University; Dr. Satu Limaye, East-West Center

Congressional Staff Program on Japan (2020-2023)

This bipartisan educational certificate program aims to equip congressional staffers with the information and analyses necessary to appreciate the role of Japan and the US-Japan alliance in US foreign policy in the Indo-Pacific, now and in the future. By also focusing on crucial forward-looking issues in US-Japan relations, CPUSJ is designed to provide staffers with a more comprehensive understanding of this relationship and its role in the region.

EAST-WEST CENTER WASHINGTON

Photo by: vichie817 / freepik

PUBLICATIONS

2020 Cruise Ship Responses to COVID-19 in the Indo-Pacific (2020-2021)

In collaboration with International Affairs Forum (IAFOR) and the Japanese Ministry of Foreign Relations, this briefing analyzes governmental, corporate, and international policies and decision-making toward pandemic response aboard cruise ships and at ports. Focusing primarily on two case studies that took place in February 2020—the Diamond Princess and the MS Westerdam—this briefing document highlights relevant policies that were and were not employed, assesses the effectiveness of these policies, and considerations for policymaking in the future.

US-Japan Relations and Southeast Asia: Meeting Regional Demands (2016)

The East-West Center in Washington (EWCW), in collaboration with the Japan Institute of International Affairs (JIIA), and through the support of the Sasakawa Peace Foundation (SPF), initiated a dialogue with Southeast Asians about their perspectives on how the US-Japan relationship and alliance could or should approach cooperation with the region.

By Satu P. Limaye and Tsutomu Kikuchi

US—Japan—Southeast Asia Partnership in a Dynamic Asia Fellowship (2018-2020)

In 2018, EWCW, in collaboration with the Osaka School of International Public Policy (OSIPP) at Osaka University, launched the US—Japan—Southeast Asia Partnership in a Dynamic Asia fellowship. This program provided analysts and scholars with an opportunity to conduct interviews, research, publish, and present work while in residence at EWCW and OSIPP. In 2020, EWCW collaborated with the Center for Rule-making Strategies (CRS) at Tama University to launch the second class of the fellowship. The East-West Center thanks The Japan Foundation and the US Embassy Tokyo for their generous support for this fellowship.

Ms. Kyoko Suzuki, Special Assistant for Trade Negotiations, Economic Partnership Division, Ministry of Foreign Affairs; Mr. Darren Mangado, Teaching Associate, De La Salle University

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US—Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.

For more information, please contact: Washington@EastWestCenter.org

Or visit our website: www.EastWestCenter.org