

EAST-WEST CENTER WASHINGTON

Photo by: vichie81 / freepik

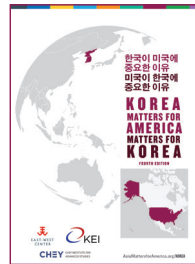

PUBLICATIONS

Asia Matters for America

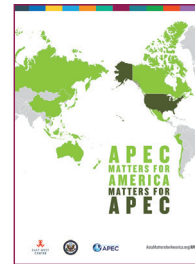

This initiative maps the trade, investment, employment, business, diplomacy, security, education, tourism, and people-to-people connections between the United States and the Indo-Pacific at the national, state, and local levels. This website, publication, and one-page summaries for states and congressional districts are resources for understanding the robust and dynamic US-Indo-Pacific relationship.

Asia Matters for America
(2022 - 4th edition)

Korea Matters for America
(2023 - 4th edition)

APEC Matters for America
(2023)

Korea Matters for Europe
(Associated Publication, 2020)

Special Series on US-Korea Relations (2022)

This special Asia Pacific Bulletin series of analyses on US-South Korea relations is a part of our ongoing efforts to promote dialogue and understanding between the United States and Korea. This series is in partnership with the Korea Economic Institute of America (KEI).

Indo-Pacific Relations with North Korea (2019)

This special Asia Pacific Bulletin series examines North Korea's relations with countries across the Indo-Pacific, including India, Mongolia, and countries in Southeast Asia.

ASIA STUDIES VISITING FELLOW

Dr. Lami Kim
Assistant Professor in the Department of National Security and Strategy, US Army War College
Residency:
August - November 2022
Research Topic:
South Korea's Arms Exports and Its Implication for World Politics

PROGRAMS

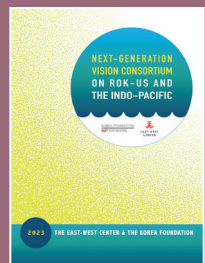

Congressional Staff Program on Korea (2023)

This bipartisan educational certificate program aims to equip congressional staffers with the information and analyses necessary to appreciate the significance of the Korean peninsula and the US role in the region. This program is in partnership with, and sponsored by, the Korea Economic Institute of America.

Next-Generation Vision Consortium on ROK-US and the Indo-Pacific (2022-2023)

The East-West Center in Washington and the Korea Foundation USA convened a series of dialogues with representatives of youth-oriented organizations specializing in international relations to build and strengthen their knowledge of Korean and Indo-Pacific affairs.

PROFESSIONAL EXCHANGE AND RESEARCH PROGRAMS

US–Korea Commercial Relations Beyond Washington & Seoul (2022–2023)

The East–West Center in Washington (EWCW), in partnership with the Korea Institute for Industrial Economics and Trade (KIET) and the Korea International Trade Association (KITA), organized an exchange and research program focused on assessing and showcasing the local impact of US–Korea economic ties in communities beyond the nations’ capitals. This program, sponsored by the US Embassy in Seoul, brought together Korean and American professionals involved in US–South Korea commercial affairs to exchange ideas and to engage in collaborative research.

United States–Republic of Korea Cooperation in Southeast Asia: Trade, Investment, and Multilateralism (2021–2022)

The East–West Center in Washington offered a year–long, collaborative policy research and exchange program, generously sponsored by the Korea Foundation, for three established scholars—one each from Korea, Southeast Asia, and the United States—who assessed how their respective countries are collaborating to bolster US–ROK cooperation in Southeast Asia in the areas of trade, investment, and in supporting multilateral efforts in the region, including in light of the COVID–19 global pandemic.

“Creating Smarter & More Sustainable Cities in Southeast Asia: A Roadmap for US–South Korea Cooperation” with EWC–KF Visiting Scholar Sea Young “Sarah” Kim and EWC Vice President Dr. Satu Limaye.

The East–West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East–West Center in Washington, a program of the East–West Center, advances US–Indo–Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.

NORTH KOREA IN THE WORLD

North Korea in the World Website

North Korea in the World, a joint collaboration between EWCW and the National Committee on North Korea, is an interactive online resource and webinar series that provides easily–accessible information on the diplomatic, economic, multilateral, and humanitarian policies of North Korea as well as China–DPRK and Inter–Korean relations.

North Korea in the World Special Series (2023)

In this collection of articles, scholars and experts provide analysis on the diplomatic and economic ties North Korea has with nations in Africa, Asia, and Europe.

North Korea in the World Webinar Series: North Korea’s Relations with Europe (2022 – 2023)

This North Korea in the World webinar series on North Korea’s relations with Europe follows a 2021 North Korea in the World webinar series on North Korea’s relations with countries across the Global South.

For more information, please contact:
Washington@EastWestCenter.org

Or visit our website:
www.EastWestCenter.org/Washington