The Pacific Islands Matter for America/America Matters for the Pacific Islands

(2022)

Launched in 2022, the publication, online articles, and data visualizations produced as part of this project explore the important and multi-faceted relationship between the United States and the Pacific Island countries, including the Freely Associated States of the Federated States of Micronesia, the Republic of the Marshall Islands, and the Republic of Palau as well as the US territories of American Samoa, the Commonwealth of the Northern Mariana Islands, and Guam. Funding for this project was provided by the US Department of the Interior Office of Insular Affairs.

PROGRAMS

Congressional Staff Program on the Pacific

This bipartisan educational certificate program equips congressional staffers with the information and analyses necessary to appreciate the Congressional Staff Program on the Pacific significance of the Pacific Islands and the US role in the region. By focusing on crucial forward-looking issues, CSPP is designed to provide staffers with a more comprehensive understanding of the region and its significance to US Indo-Pacific policy.

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US—Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.
