

The Asia Pacific Bulletin (APB) is produced by the East-West Center in Washington. APB analyses focus on policy-relevant Asia Pacific developments and US-Asia relations and are 1000 words in length. APBs are designed to provide insights, information, and perspective for the busy professional or policymaker. APB considers any article that provides cogent, timely, and rigorous analysis of contemporary issues in the Asia Pacific region and encourages contributors to write on subjects that impact both US and Asian policy. The publication welcomes a diversity of opinion and is particularly keen to publish voices from the Asia Pacific region.

APB SPECIAL SERIES

Special APB Series on Mongolian Affairs

To mark the start of the 8th International Conference of the Ulaanbaatar Dialogue on Northeast Asian Security, the East West Center in Washington has brought together an eminent group of scholars and experts on Mongolian Affairs. This special series touches upon US-Mongolian relations, the importance of the Ulaanbaatar Dialogue, and other pertinent economic and social issues.

US Indo-Pacific Strategy at One Year Special APB Series – Perspectives from Allies and Partners

This APB series summarized key remarks from experts and government officials at the US Indo-Pacific Strategy at One Year event in Washington, DC. The event focused on Europe, Japan, South Korea, India, and Australia.

Special Series on US-Korea Relations

This collection of expert analysis, commissioned by the East-West Center in Washington and the Korea Economic Institute (KEI) of America, seeks to elucidate the current state of US-South Korea relations. This special Asia Pacific Bulletin (APB) series is a part of our ongoing efforts to promote dialogue and understanding between the United States and Korea.

SPECIAL PUBLICATIONS

U.S. Indo-Pacific Strategy After One Year

US-Korea Commercial Relations Beyond Washington & Seoul

Next-Generation Vision Consortium on ROK-US and the Indo-Pacific

New Opportunities for the United States-Kingdom of Thailand Alliance in the Indo-Pacific

The Indo-Pacific Conference on Strengthening Governance of Transboundary Rivers

2020 Cruise Ship Responses to COVID-19 in the Indo-Pacific

A Hardening US-China Competition: Asia Policy in America's 2020 Elections and Regional Responses

UPCOMING

2024 ELECTION REPORT

Occasional Paper

The EWC Occasional Paper series presents research findings on five broad themes: Indo-Pacific strategic competition and international relations; climate, energy, and environment; emerging technology and related diplomatic efforts; economic statecraft; and international organization and multilateral diplomacy. The maximum length for papers in this series is 7,500 words, excluding footnotes. Tables, charts, and graphics may be included in text or in an appendix. This series aims to serve as a platform for EWC staff, Visiting Scholars, Visiting Fellows, RICE Fellows, Non-Resident Fellows, and Adjuncts to not only disseminate their ideas but also advance collaboration and exchange.

OP SPECIAL SERIES ON TAIWAN

Congress Ensures Continuity in US Policy Toward China and Taiwan

Robert Sutter
George Washington University

Mapping the Unknown and Thinking the Unthinkable: How US Allies Might Respond in a Crisis over Taiwan

David M. Sacks
Fellow for Asia Studies, Council on Foreign Relations

Asian American Politicians Strategic Communication in Covid: Tweets of "Stop Asian Hate" Amid US-China Tensions

Shu-An Tsai
SUNY Buffalo

Taiwan's Economic Policy Toward China Under the Tsai Ing-Wen Administration

Chien-Kai Chen
Associate Professor of International Studies Rhodes College

The Role of the 1992 Consensus and Taiwan's 2024 Presidential Elections

Dean P. Chen, PhD
Professor of Political Science Ramapo College of New Jersey

Kiely Paris-Rodriguez
Ramapo College of New Jersey

Diplomacy by People: Taiwan's Opportunities for Engagement in Southeast Asia

Zoe Weaver-Lee
East-West Center

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US-Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.