

The East-West Center in Washington (EWCW) hosts conferences, seminars, webinars, and dialogues featuring professionals in media, politics, government, civil society, and business from the United States and Indo-Pacific, providing the opportunity to exchange views and deepen knowledge of regional issues while interacting with a global audience.

Indo-Pacific Seminar Series

This flagship program brings scholars, policymakers, government officials, and members of the media from the Indo-Pacific and the United States together to present their research and findings to a wide, regional audience. The seminars fall within three main topics: Foreign Policy and Defense; Democratic Values and Human Rights; and Political Economy and Trade.

The East-West Center in Washington has also held special webinar series with regional partners and alumni, including:

United States–Republic of Korea (ROK) Cooperation in Southeast Asia: Trade, Investment, and Multilateralism Webinar Series

A collaboration between EWCW and the Korea Foundation, this series sponsored three experts, one each from South Korea, Southeast Asia, and the United States, who assessed how their respective countries are collaborating to bolster US – ROK cooperation in Southeast Asia.

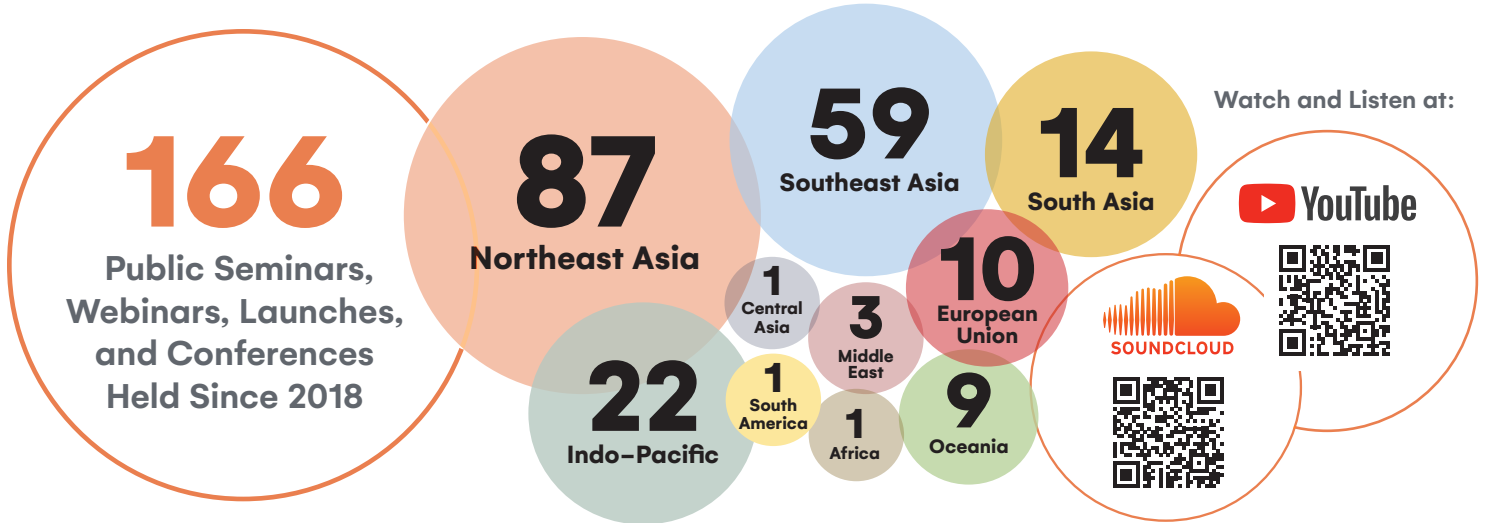

New Opportunities for the United States–Kingdom of Thailand Alliance in the Indo-Pacific Webinar Series

A collaboration between EWCW, the Royal Thai Embassy, Washington, DC, the Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Thailand, and the International Studies Center to further promote engagement between the United States and Thailand.

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US–Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.

North Korea in the World Webinar Series (Season 2)

This North Korea in the World webinar series examines North Korea's historical and contemporary relations with countries in Europe and how those countries navigate relations between the United States, South Korea, and North Korea. How do these countries manage to walk the 38th parallel? How successful are they, and what can we learn from it? It follows a prior North Korea in the World webinar series on North Korea's relations with countries across the Global South.

For more information, please contact:
Washington@EastWestCenter.org

Or visit our website:

60 Minutes for the EWC 60th Anniversary Alumni Seminar Series

In celebration of the Center's 60th anniversary, EWCW held public webinars featuring policy experts from around the world who have participated in EWCW fellowships, internships, dialogues, and conference programs.

