The Asia Matters for America Initiative

This initiative maps the trade, investment, employment, business, diplomacy, security, education, tourism, and people-to-people connections between the United States and the Indo-Pacific at the national, state, and local levels. As part of the Asia Matters for America initiative, the Taiwan Matters publication and the AsiaMattersforAmerica.org website are resources for understanding the robust and dynamic US-Taiwan relationship.

The Asia Pacific Bulletin

The Asia Pacific Bulletin (APB) is produced by the East-West Center in Washington. APB analyses focus on policy-relevant Asia Pacific developments and US-Asia relations and are 1000 words in length. APBs are designed to provide insights, information, and perspective for the busy professional or policymaker. APB considers any article that provides cogent, timely, and rigorous analysis of contemporary issues in the Asia Pacific region and encourages contributors to write on subjects that impact both US and Asian policy. The publication welcomes a diversity of opinion and is particularly keen to publish voices from the Asia Pacific region.

The East-West Center Washington and AmCham Taiwan assembled an eminent group of scholars, policy experts, and former top-level government officials to assess various aspects of US-Taiwan relations as a precursor to the publication of Taiwan Matters for America.

2024 Indo-Pacific Journalists Study Tour and Dialogue

From April 17 to April 19, the East-West Center in Washington led a delegation of 18 journalists from across the Indo-Pacific to Taiwan for the 2024 Indo-Pacific Journalists Study Tour and Dialogue. Under the theme of "Enhancing Regional Connections," the delegation included participants representing India, South Korea, Japan, New Zealand, and Taiwan. During this three-day visit, the delegation engaged with various local organizations, companies, and government officials including the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, Kuma Academy, Radio Taiwan International and the Taiwan Digital Diplomacy Association, Taipower Company, and Doublethink Lab. The group heard from experts and practitioners regarding Taiwan's democratic resilience, efforts to fight disinformation, energy security, economic transformation, and diplomatic space.

Young Professionals Program

The Young Professionals Program offers students and recent graduates the opportunity to gain first-hand training experience working at a US—Indo-Pacific research and education organization in Washington, DC. Participants create content, collaborate on research, and assist at events.

The East-West Center promotes better relations and understanding among the people and nations of the United States, Asia, and the Pacific through cooperative study research and dialogue. Established by the US Congress in 1960, the Center serves as a resource for information and analysis on critical issues of common concern, bringing people together to exchange views, build expertise, and develop policy options. The East-West Center in Washington, a program of the East-West Center, advances US—Indo-Pacific relations by creating innovative content, publications, exchanges, and outreach activities.
