This page provides a summary of Asia-related data for California District 24 and Asia, including exports, jobs, travel and tourism, student exchanges, and Asian American demographics. The information is sourced from various organizations and surveys, including the Trade Partnership, Institute of International Education (IIE), and the US Census Bureau, among others. The site AsiaMattersforAmerica.org provides more detailed data and methodology behind these statistics.